

From Roanoke to Hollywood: One Man's Stance Against Hate

"I was just doing what I thought was right, and here I am on the stage at Warner Bros. Studio, being featured on the Season 10 premiere of the Ellen show and I'm within arm's reach of all these celebrities that are here to help me?"

--Richard Henegar Jr. writes about the reaction to his good deed for the victim of a hate crime. Read Richard Jr.'s inspiring post here.

Not In My Family: How to Prevent Your Child From Being Cyberbullied

Internet technology is pervasive among young people today, and Blair Campbell knows that makes it even harder for parents to protect their children from being cyberbullied. Campbell, a parent and privacy professional, is responsible for the introduction of (ISC)²'s Safe and Secure Online program in Canada. Read his tips on recognizing the signs that your child is being targeted online and what you can do.

2012: Communities Come Together After Storms, Shootings

Remembering Jon Fromer

Jon Fromer, an award-winning television producer, singer, social activist and leader of The Working Group, passed away Jan. 2. Read more about Jon Fromer.

powered by RAZOO

Not In Our Town is a project of The Working Group, a 501(c)3. All donations are tax-deductible.

In 2012, we witnessed communities rise up to help the bereaved and stand up for their neighbors in times of great distress. From the destruction of Hurricane Sandy to the unimaginable grief of the residents of Oak Creek, WI, people rose up to defend others from both intolerance and offer neighborly support.

Read the rest of our year-end roundup here.

