

Walter Currie, Jr.

Let Attack Victim Walter Currie, Jr. Know He's Not Alone

In June, fifteen-year-old Walter Currie, Jr. was doused with gasoline and then set on fire in the small town of Poplar Bluff, MO.

Please add your voice to the growing number of messages of support for Walter, and let him know he's not alone.

Tomorrow, Executive Producer Patrice O'Neill will travel to Poplar Bluff to meet with Walter and his family. Follow Patrice on Twitter for updates from her trip. (You can follow The Working Group's Twitter feed for the latest TWG news, too!)

Learn more about the story and leave Walter a message of support.

Standing on the Side of Love in Knoxville, TN

Last week, our film crew traveled to Knoxville, TN to capture the powerful story of the community's stand against hate, one year after a deadly shooting event traumatized an entire congregation.

For the one-year anniversary of the shooting, the Tennessee Valley Unitarian Universalist Church recognized its many supporters and those who "stood on the side of love" by hosting a concert and ice cream social. The theme of the evening was "Instruments of Peace."

Read more and see photos from the "Instruments of Peace" event.

Supporters gathered with TVUUC members for a group photo before the "Instruments of Peace" anniversary event (Photo courtesy: Karen Krogh)

The Working Group
PO Box 70232 | Oakland, CA 94612-0232 | Ph: 510.268.9675 Fax: 510.268.3606 www.theworkinggroup.org
| info@theworkinggroup.org

This email was sent to .
To ensure that you continue receiving our emails, please add us to your address book or safe list.

manage your preferences | opt out using TrueRemove®

Got this as a forward? Sign up to receive our future emails.

