Group Spotlight: NIOT Princeton

Princeton, New Jersey has a reputation as a well-heeled town. It's home to Princeton University, one of the nation's premier Ivy League institutions. However, racial tensions and socio-economic disparities exist, and that's where Not In Our Town Princeton has chosen to focus. Their interfaith, inter-racial coalition has been tackling racism head-on since the group's creation more than a decade ago.

Read our latest Group Spotlight to find out how NIOT Princeton takes their campaigns for unity and social justice to local merchants, area schools, and their public libraries.

Sneak Preview the Next Not In Our Town Film

We've just posted a trailer for our next film, NIOT III: The Patchogue Story (working title). The story takes place in a Long Island community where Marcelo Lucero, an Ecuadorean immigrant, was murdered in November 2008 in an attack by seven high school students who were looking for "Mexicans" to beat up.

The film follows the actions of local community members, the Lucero family, the mayor and other Village leaders, teachers and students working to repair the fabric of town life in the aftermath of this shocking hate crime.

NIOT III will be presented on PBS stations nationwide in 2011. Here's a sneak preview of the film -- stay tuned for new short videos from the film in progress.
