

United Against Hate Week

November 14-20, 2021

Not In Our Town Film Guide

NIOT Films feature dedicated people standing up to hate and provide roadmaps for community action. Below are five short films trailers (running times are for the full film). For links to the films, please register using the Free NIOT Film Request Form. For a larger selection, please visit niot.org, to access over 200 short and feature-length films, to purchase films, and for links to film screening kits.

Additional films are available on our YouTube channel: youtube.com/user/theworkinggroup

Not In Our Town: Light in the Darkness

Time: 0:29:13

https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=MIGDF\_C9mB4

Not In Our Town: Light In The Darkness is about a town coming together to take action after anti-immigrant violence devastates the community.

Waking In Oak Creek

Time: 0:33:37

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=1Dw98jBitGU>

Waking in Oak Creek reveals the powerful and inspiring response of a community in the year after deadly hate crime shootings at The Sikh Temple of Wisconsin.

Not In Our Town: Manhattan Beach

Time: 0:13:07

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=39C8lq2tljo>

After an African-American family's home is set on fire, local community members rally to respond to the threat of hate.

A Prosecutor's Stand

Time: 0:21:13

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=IBxmRjTPILo>

The film raises awareness about the importance of reporting and prosecuting hate as a San Francisco Assistant District Attorney brings hate crime charges against perpetrators who brutally attack a Mayan dishwasher, an African-American homeless man, and a transgender woman.

Not In Our Town: Billings, Montana

Time: 0:25:37

https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=rDH4gKDw\_fo

The PBS film that launched the Not In Our Town Movement: in Billings, Montana, townspeople of all races and religions find common ground against hate-based attacks against African-American, Native American and Jewish families and congregations.

United Against Hate Week

November 14-20, 2021

NIOT Short Films

NIOT Films feature dedicated people standing up to hate and provide roadmaps for community action. Below are five short films prompts that can be used in classrooms and public forums to spark discussion and inspire action. For links to the films, please register using the Free NIOT Film Request Form. For a larger selection, please visit niot.org, to access over 200 short and feature-length films, to purchase films, and for links to film screening kits. Additional films are available on our YouTube channel: youtube.com/user/theworkinggroup

Crisis of Hate, Call for Response

Time: 0:5:36

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=TqYnDlrE2cQ>

A brief overview of hate crimes and the challenges communities face in prosecuting the crimes, responding in support of victims, and taking action to prevent hate crimes from occurring.

Leaving a Positive Footprint

Time: 0:5:44

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=2aKTou7qewc>

For Schools: A middle school teacher explores the impact of bullying and ways to be an upstander. Students invent the "Leaving a Positive Footprint" activity, where the pupils paint footprints with positive messages on school pathways.

Facing the Change: Mississippi

Time: 0:10:43

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=H9viSK5tjOo>

At the University of Mississippi, a segregationist chant and Ku Klux Klan rally threaten to divide the campus community, but student leaders and their chancellor take a stand against hate and intolerance. Many conflicts over the legacy of slavery and the Confederacy have occurred since this program was produced in 2010.

San Leandro Stands United Against AAPI Hate

Time: 0:2:33

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=VGFdSLT68I4&feature=youtu.be>

As hate incidents targeting Asians rose by over 200% in the San Francisco East Bay community of San Leandro, local activists and leaders came together to show solidarity with the Asian community on May 16, 2021.

Summer of Hate, Season of Healing

Time: 0:17:29

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=Z41ne0vapRE>

In 1999, three synagogues in Sacramento, CA were firebombed and soon after the arsonists traveled to Redding, where they murdered a gay couple. Hundreds in the community come together to make a public stand against hate crimes.