Family Members of Hate Crime Victims Speak Out on Changing Hearts, Minds and the Law

Aug. 5, 2020 at 5pm EDT

Presented by: Not In Our Town and Interfaith Conference of Greater Milwaukee

In August, we remember victims of hate crimes that have shaken the country, from Oak Creek to El Paso, Tulsa and Charlottesville.

Join us in conversation with Pardeep Kaleka, Susan Bro, Dawn Collins and Rami Jabara.

These leaders will share stories of loss, hope and a call to action. They will discuss their activism, the challenges of hate crime reporting and prosecution, and the value of community action in support of families and individuals targeted by hate.

Learn more about The Jabara-Heyer No Hate Act to improve hate crime reporting and prevention, and what you can do to prevent hate crimes in your community.
